

One little baby, what does he see?
A wild yellow fiddleneck waving in the breeze.

ILW

Three little babies, what do they see?
Three striped and humming, thrumming bumblebees.

LW

Four little babies, what do they see?
Four blackberry treats, juicy and sweet.

ILW

Five little babies, what do they see?
Five jumping frogs croak kerr-ROG, kerr-ROG!

ILW

Six little babies, what do they see?
Six lovely butterflies, fluttering by.

Seven little babies, what do they see?
Seven lizards on a rock, in the Sun and getting hot!

LW

Eight little babies, what do they see?
Eight rabbits' furry ears, here and there and everywhere

Nine little babies, what do they see?
Nine squirrels curling up a sycamore tree.

Ten little babies, what do they see?
Ten ants in the sand crawling up your darling hand!